Nantucket Island

with Island Tour
and a visit to the Whaling Museum

Tuesday, September 15, 2026

Nantucket– with its coastal charm, ocean breezes and pristine shoreline– is the quintessential New England getaway. Today, we take the fast ferry to the island and revel in the island’s historical significance and unmatched natural beauty. After arriving, we’ll meet our bus and enjoy a narrated island tour and become acquainted with one of the world’s most famous whaling ports of the 18th century. On our riding tour we’ll see the Old Mill, Sconset Village, Sankaty Head Lighthouse, the Nantucket Heathlands, Low Beach and more!

After the tour, we’ll have some time to grab a bite (on-own) and explore the quaint shops that line the downtown area. Afterwards, we head to the Whaling Museum to step back in time when whaling was a way of life for the islanders. Here, we’ll discover more than 1,000 works of art, artifacts and treasures– including a 46-foot whale skeleton found on the island!
