

The Great Pacific Northwest

including 'Lewis & Clark' Discovery

June 18 - 27, 2026 10 Days / 18 Meals

Discover stunning vistas, rugged coastlines, beautiful scenery and history on this tour of America's great Pacific Northwest. We will fly into Portland and meet our Guide for a City Tour that includes the famed Rose and Chinese Gardens, neighborhoods such as Nob Hill, the Cultural and Alphabet Districts and visit the Pittock Mansion. In the afternoon we will check into our hotel - The Embassy Suites Downtown Portland. Enjoy a Manager's Cocktail Reception before a short walk to dinner Jake's Crawfish Restaurant. On Day 2 after breakfast we will visit the outskirts of Portland and the town of McMinnville, said to be one of Oregon's most picturesque towns. We will visit the Evergreen Aviation Museum with fantastic displays of era planes and the famous Spruce Goose. This evening enjoy a Dinner Cruise on the Columbia River. Day 3 we take the Columbia River Drive featuring over 20 waterfalls, forests and State Parks. Enjoy lunch (on own) at the Mount Hood Inn with breathtaking views then visit the Cultural Center before we return for dinner at the hotel. Today is 'The Pacific or Bust'! We travel South to Salem and visit the unique State Capitol building and the 1894 Deepwood Estate and Gardens. Afterwards, we head south through stunning scenery with stops to view elk and wildlife in their natural habitat before arriving on the Coast in beautiful Coos Bay. We visit the Maritime Museum and check into our hotel - The Mill Hotel & Casino. Tonight, we will be hosted by an Oregon tradition - a Huge Dungeness Crab Feast! - followed by free time at the Casino. On Day 5 we travel along the Oregon Coast with a stop in Florence for a Dune Buggy Ride. Enjoy a great thrill as we ride the big dunes in our giant buggies! We then take the scenic Coastal Road north between the Pacific Ocean and the Suislaw National Forest. We arrive in Newport and enjoy free time at the Historic Bayfront before we visit the Oregon Coast Aquarium. We arrive in Lincoln City to witness artistic glass blowing before we check into our seaside hotel with dinner overlooking the Pacific at the hotel. On Day 6 we embark on our Lewis and Clark adventure with a visit to Fort Clatsop where the 'Corps of Discovery' spent their first winter in this woodsy inlet. Next, onwards to Astoria and climb the Astoria Column at the mouth of the Columbia River where Lewis and Clark first gazed out onto the Pacific. We will visit the Columbia River Maritime Museum with Lewis and Clark artifacts and the famous Flavel House Museum. We arrive in Astoria, Oregon and check into our hotel the Best Western Waterfront Astoria for the next two nights. Dinner will be taken on the Pier at the Bridgewater Bistro. On Day 7, we meet our Guide for a tour that visits the Columbia Pacific Heritage Museum and the Lewis and Clark Interpretive Center. This afternoon we visit beautiful, coastal Oysterville. Take a short walking tour of the village, see how they harvest oysters and enjoy some samplings. We return to our hotel and have dinner at the Silver Salmon Grill for sumptuous local fare. The next morning we depart to Seattle with stops in Willapa to see the Northwest Carriage Museum and Olympia to visit the Capitol Building. In Tacoma we - visit Fort Nisqually on beautiful Point Defiance, site of the first Puget Sound European Settlement with its fortress
