Cruise round trip from Miami aboard the Norwegian Sun, transiting the Gatun Locks halfway through the Panama Canal on this 11-night cruise to exotic ports in the Caribbean, Mexico, South & Central America. We'll fly direct to Miami and enjoy beachfront accommodations before boarding our cruise ship on day two. After a relaxing sea day we call on Falmouth along the north coast of Jamaica, known for world class beaches. After another sea day we dock in Cartagena, Columbia with its colorful Spanish Colonial buildings, 16th Century "Old Town", fortress and museums. Next is the Central American country of Panama where we cruise through the "new" Canal to Gatun Lake, then dock 12 hours later in Colon for a day of exploration. Two more Central American ports are next, starting with Costa Rica – the Ecotourism capital of the world. We dock in Puerto Limon where we can experience rain forests and jungle habitat, enjoy nature walks, a banana plantation or a leisurely eco cruise along the Tortuguero Canal. In the next port, Belize, we spend a day on NCL's private island of Harvest Caye to enjoy its expansive beach, pool, water sports and shopping village. Our last port is Cozumel, an island near Mexico's Mayan Riviera that offers world class coral reefs for snorkeling or glass bottom boat rides, great duty-free shopping and white sand beaches. After another relaxing sea day we arrive back in Miami for our return flight home.
